REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD

Our public school system dates back more than one hundred years before the signing of the Declaration of Independence. In 1647 the Massachusetts Bay Colony passed a law that every township having fifty households should have a public school where children could be taught to read and write and every township having one hundred houses should have a grammar school, "the masters thereof being able to instruct youth so far as they are fitted, for the university."

From this humble beginning we have our present New Hampshire educational system, which has never been excelled in our state's history; but there is still opportunity for greater benefit to the children in the rural sections for those who cannot receive the benefit of the high school. At present this is a large percentage of the pupils of communities similar to our own. More depends upon the teacher than the system. It needs no argument to demonstrate that a school is no better than the teacher.

Teaching is a profession for which intelligence and training are recognized as necessary. We must recognize the necessity of compensating our teachers according to present day requirements.

We have a new corps of teachers in all the schools except East View where Mrs. Martha B. MacDonald is completing her ninth year. No comments need be made in regard to this school, as the interest which Mrs. MacDonald has always taken is well known. The Christmas exercises were enthusiastically carried out, including a play, which was composed by the teacher.

To the Chesham school Miss Marion S. Guild has brought great zeal and is constantly working for the best good of her pupils, both mentally and morally. Although having all the grades Miss Guild has undertaken work in manual arts training for the boys in the three higher grades. Warm dinners have also been instituted.

The schools at the village are under the instruction of Louise E. Baldasaro and Doris M. Fletcher, who are experienced teachers. Christmas exercises were also given by these schools as in each of the others, and all the schools seem to be making good progress and a harmonious atmosphere seems to pervade in all the schools.

Auditor.

Harrisville, N. H., Jan. 31, 1924.

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

To the Citizens and School Board of Harrisville:

It is with pleasure that I herein submit my first annual report as superintendent of schools.

During the short period of six months' observation and direction of your schools, we have aimed to follow the state course as far as conditions and a limited supply of equipment will permit.

As far as possible we have eliminated educational fallacies and put emphasis on the old fashioned word, "work," directing our efforts to the fundamentals, viz: reading, writing and arithmetic, the use of good English, both oral and written, in composition and conversation.

The teachers have been devoted to their work and conscientious in its execution.

There is no escape from the fact that public schools are expensive and that their cost is increasing. The increase in cost is due not only to the higher salaries needed to secure good teachers, higher cost of repairs, the doubling of charges for heat, extension of required transportation routes, continued higher prices of books and supplies, but also to the fact that the requirements which schools have to meet have broadened greatly throughout the entire country and physical conditions held satisfactory forty years ago are no longer tolerated. Our great problem is to maintain our schools in creditable condition and at the same time keep within the limits of our appropriations.

Yet we must realize that public school education is the bulwark of our free institutions, that in the rising generation of boys and girls lie the latent powers of our republic, that the way the twig is bent the tree is sure to grow.

Therefore, realizing that the boys and girls of today are to be the men and women of tomorrow, it behooves us to act with feverish solicitude in the interests of the welfare of our children. It is an essential duty imposed upon us to vitalize their education with a thorough preparation in the fundamentals of mental, moral and religious life.

Someone has said that the proverbs or maxims of a people generally represent the wisdom of long experience. They are the signboards on a life's great highway erected by our forefathers, and most travelers accept their guidance without question. As a false sign on a crowded alley may lead multitudes astray, so an untrue maxim or a misguided habit of study, especially when circulating among the young and inexperienced, may turn a nation into dangerous or fatal paths. There never was a time in the world's history when the nations were brought more forcibly face to face with these vital facts than in this transitional period, an epoch of world life distinguished for its keen competition in every vocation of life, and one that will demand the rising generation of boys and girls taught in accordance with modern pedagogical and psychological laws. In this spirit, during six months' observation of your school, I have tried to interpret the educational situation in Harrisville, to alleviate conditions as far as financial means and opportunities have been placed in my possession.

GRADUATION

The following pupils were graduated from the eighth grade of the Harrisville schools last June: Hazel McComb, Florence Main, Kenneth Morton, Maria Seppa, Yrja Steman, Harry Sturtevant and Elbert Willard.

TEACHERS AND SCHOOLS 1923-24

At the beginning of the present school year the following teachers took up the work of directing and guiding the youth of Harrisville: At Chesham, Miss Marion S. Guild; at Eastview, Mrs. Martha B. MacDonald; at the Village, Miss Louise E. Baldasaro, grades V to VIII, and Miss Doris M. Fletcher, grades I to IV, inclusive.

All the teachers have been alert and active in behalf of the interests of their pupils, maintaining good discipline, increased the per cent of attendance, decreased the number of tardy marks, and have taken an interest not only in the duties of the school room, but also in the various activities of community life.

In conclusion I would extend to the school board my sincere thanks for their assistance and loyal support. These things and the congenial attitude of parents, citizens and pupils have been important elements in the welfare of your schools.

Respectfully submitted.

FREDERICK T. JOHNSON,

Superintendent of Schools.

Marlboro, N. H., Feb. 9, 1924.
